Message From Mayor Neff

It's not always easy to spread the word about Little Silver events. So this month I want to let you know that you need look no further than your own hometown for summertime action!

First, after several years' hiatus, we're bringing outdoor summer concerts back to Little Silver. Grab a chair or a blanket, friends and family, and come enjoy the local talent and a summer's evening.

The two events will take place at the Markham Place Gazebo. There is no admission fee.

On August 4, Chuck Lambert, the "Sultan of Swag," will play the blues, accompanied by Little Silver's own accomplished vocalist, the lovely and talented Susan Haugen.

And on August 18, John Luckenbill and Sons Big Band will return to the gazebo to play a variety of selections from across the musical spectrum. The band plays venues at the Shore and around the state, and was a tradition here for years.

The Luckenbills, as well, are home-grown Little Silver and Shrewsbury musicians, and very accomplished. John's dad was able to teach even me to play the trumpet at Point Road School more than 40 years ago, so you know that this family has talent!

The bands strike up at 7 p.m., weather permitting. Thanks to the Recreation Committee for putting these events together.

Speaking of recreation, if you are looking to get the kids out of the house, or to enjoy the outdoors yourself, I'd recommend our walking trails. The new creekside trail extending from Branch Avenue to Woodland Street now has colorful signs, thanks to the Environmental Commission and student designers Anjali Narang, Jack Dengler, and Maggie Mullaney.

But if the summer heat's too much for an outside adventure, or if indoor activities are more your thing, please check out the Borough Library, located on Prospect Avenue next to Borough Hall.

You'll see a notice in this newsletter about the children's summer reading program, but there is one for adults, as well. Grownups: read five books this summer, and win a prize! Visit librarian Anita O'Brien and her helpful volunteer staff at the Library to sign up.

And while you're there, take a look at the beautiful artwork on display by Roberta Carter Clark, a Little Silver resident and noted water color and oil artist. The works may be purchased, and the Library - which relies heavily on donations - receives 30 percent of any purchase.

Plus, the library has free wi-fi. It's a busy place, with frequent children's activities, book discussions, and visiting writers and artists. Ask Anita to put you on their mailing list.

There are other activities listed in this Newsletter and on our website. Please visit those sources of information for the latest offerings.

A Note From The Administrator/Clerk:

Dear Residents,

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself. My name is Kimberly (Kim) Jungfer and I will be taking over the duties of Borough Administrator/Borough Clerk from Helen Gormley upon her retirement on August 2nd. Though these are very hard shoes to fill, I can assure you I will do my best. I come to Little Silver with 23 years of municipal experience and, as a longtime resident of Oceanport, I am very familiar with Little Silver - remembering when Walgreens was Grants, Mike's Toy Store, best toy store ever, was the place to go and school shoes came from Sid's Bootery.

In my first few days here I have discovered that the employees are a dedicated, professional group of individuals. From the residents I have had the pleasure of meeting, I get a true sense of community. I am excited to be a part of the Little Silver team and working with everyone to ensure that Little Silver remains a great place to call home.

I thank you for this opportunity.

Kimberly Jungfer
Acting Borough Administrator/Clerk

From The Tax Collector:

Property tax bills were mailed to all residents on July 16th. The grace period for third quarter taxes has been extended to August 13th due to the delay in mailing. All eligible Homestead Rebate recipients had their credit applied to their third quarter payment amounts. The credit is reflected on the third quarter tax bill stub as an adjustment. Please contact the Tax Collector's Office at 732-219-0812 if you did not receive a bill.

Borough Tax Sale

All 2012 delinquent property taxes and 2012 unpaid sewer balances will be slated for Tax Sale on September 12, 2013 at 9:30 a.m. at the Little Silver Borough Hall. As required by law, a notice will be published in the newspaper for four consecutive weeks prior to the sale. Names will not be deleted after the original publication.

I'd also like to remind everyone once again to register with CodeRed for emergency notifications. If you haven't done so already, visit www.littlesilver.org, and click on the Two River Alert-CodeRed button, a red button located on the right-hand side of the home page. Or pick up a registration form in Borough Hall. You can call CodeRed directly at 866-939-0911 for assistance.

One other reminder for our Sandy survivors: the Borough is continuing to host CPC Behavioral Healthcare on Thursday nights from 5-8 at the Women's Club. The counseling service is free to the town and to our residents. You may walk in or call 888-671-8203 for an appointment.

I'll close as always, by asking anyone wishing to volunteer in some capacity for their town to let me know. I can be reached at bobneff80@gmail.com, or at my home phone at 732-576-8595 (nope, still not back in the house, but checking messages). On behalf of the governing body, we wish you a pleasant summer season.

Little Silver Garden Club

Club members are busy with weekly maintenance of their Friendship Garden in Memorial Park, along with the flowers they planted at the Library and Train Station. The Club has joined with area sister clubs in reaching out to storm-battered Sea Bright with two recovery projects: Last spring and again in the fall, the dune grass that helps protect the dunes and the town is being replenished, purchasing the currently hard-to-come-by grass corms with grant and donation money. The clubs have also planted perennial beds in downtown Sea Bright. Little Silver Garden Club has a small garden by the bait shop.

Garden Club meetings resume in September, the second Thursday of each month, 9:30 a.m. at the Women's Club. Guests are always welcome!
